Latest Survey section disappears once the user has completed the latest survey, Announcements moves to the left if there are announcements to show.

Announcements section shows posts designated as announcements, 2-3 visible at a time, but could horizontally scroll between announcements if there are more than can be shown at once.

Can add quick links based on user feedback, analytics. Possibly customizable through "my account"?

"Give feedback" encourages site functionality feedback during the pilot rollout, can change to more general feedback, requests, etc on activities for wider use.
